

Identify and describe using adverbials of time

Underline the adverbs of time in each sentence:

Archie knew that he would be arriving soon.

Ameena will now be performing at 8 o'clock.

He was desperate to win first place at the competition tomorrow.

Use adverbs of time to describe when something happens in these sentences:

Rosie will visit the doctors _____.

Mum will be arriving _____ and I can't wait to see her!

She slowly looked at her phone and knew that she would be called _____.

Underline the adverbials of time in each sentence. One has been done for you:

I returned to school as soon as I could.

She woke up after a long night, exhausted.

Luke hopes that he would become a police officer in the future.

Our visitors will be here before long.

Deeper Thinking: Would these adverbials work anywhere else in the sentence? Where?

Expand this main clause using adverbials of time to describe:

She sang.

Remember to describe your verbs and make this main clause far more interesting!

adverbs of time, adverbials, verb, main clause, describe

Identify and describe using adverbials of time

Underline the adverbs of time in each sentence:

Archie knew that he would be arriving soon.

Ameena will now be performing at 8 o'clock.

He was desperate to win first place at the competition tomorrow.

Use adverbs of time to describe when something happens in these sentences:

Rosie will visit the doctors _____.

Mum will be arriving _____ and I can't wait to see her!

She slowly looked at her phone and knew that she would be called _____.

Underline the adverbials of time in each sentence. One has been done for you:

I returned to school as soon as I could.

She woke up after a long night, exhausted.

Luke hopes that he would become a police officer in the future.

Our visitors will be here before long.

Deeper Thinking: Would these adverbials work anywhere else in the sentence? Where?

Expand this main clause using adverbials of time to describe:

She sang.

Remember to describe your verbs and make this main clause far more interesting!

adverbs of time, adverbials, verb, main clause, describe