

Identify and describe using adverbials of place

Circle the adverbs of place:

here nearby

later suddenly there

upstairs happily

Which word describes where Sam dropped the cereal? Tick it.

Sam dropped the cereal everywhere.

Tick which sentences include an adverbial of place:

They left their masks back at the house.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Henry hid behind the bed without a sound.	<input type="checkbox"/>
The police confirmed that the criminals were far away at this point.	<input type="checkbox"/>
I am visiting my grandparents on Tuesday.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Remember to ask yourself: when? where?

Identify the adverbials of place in this extract:

For a time, Mary lived with an English clergyman nearby. He had five children in shabby clothes who quarreled constantly. Their house was never clean and Mary spent most of her time alone outside, snarling whenever another child would come to tease her.

Deeper Thinking:

Choose one and re-write it at the start of a sentence.

Which position gives the most effect? Why?

Extract from 'The Secret Garden' by Frances Hodgson Burnett

Use adverbials of place to expand this main clause:

She hid.

Remember to describe your verbs and make this main clause far more interesting!

Where did she hide? Where was this place?

adverbs of place, adverbials, verb, main clause, describe

Identify and describe using adverbials of place

Circle the adverbs of place:

here nearby

later suddenly there

upstairs happily

Which word describes where Sam dropped the cereal? Tick it.

Sam dropped the cereal everywhere.

Tick which sentences include an adverbial of place:

They left their masks back at the house.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Henry hid behind the bed without a sound.	<input type="checkbox"/>
The police confirmed that the criminals were far away at this point.	<input type="checkbox"/>
I am visiting my grandparents on Tuesday.	<input type="checkbox"/>

Remember to ask yourself: when? where?

Identify the adverbials of place in this extract:

For a time, Mary lived with an English clergyman nearby. He had five children in shabby clothes who quarreled constantly. Their house was never clean and Mary spent most of her time alone outside, snarling whenever another child would come to tease her.

Deeper Thinking:

Choose one and re-write it at the start of a sentence.

Which position gives the most effect? Why?

Extract from 'The Secret Garden' by Frances Hodgson Burnett

Use adverbials of place to expand this main clause:

She hid.

Remember to describe your verbs and make this main clause far more interesting!

Where did she hide? Where was this place?

adverbs of place, adverbials, verb, main clause, describe