

CORONATION GRAMMAR QUESTIONS

1. Rewrite the sentence "The coronation of Charles III was attended by thousands of people" in active voice.
 2. Rewrite the sentence "The king ate and drank with his guests at a special banquet" in the present perfect tense.
 3. Identify the noun that the pronoun "he" refers to in the sentence "He processed through the streets in a golden carriage."
 4. Rewrite the sentence "The return of the monarchy marked an important event in English history" using a different verb to replace "marked".
 5. Identify the conjunction used to connect the clauses in the sentence "The streets were decorated with flowers and banners, and the city was alive with music and dancing."
 6. Rewrite the sentence "The kings nobles and courtiers accompanied him in the golden carriage" adding an apostrophe for possession.
-
- 